4. On 24 May, 6 T-34/85 tanks performed record firing which was witnessed by numerous officers. Since shells with a greater blast effect than that of the standard tank shells were fired, ☐ a new type of ammunition was being demonstrated. An officers' meeting was held on 26 May in the clubhouse, and 30 passenger cars, ☐

Comments.

- (1) The location of the numbered camp sections is shown in Annex to [ ] 25X1
 The information in the present report on Sections 11, 12 and 14 supplements previous reports [ ] and, on the basis of the weapons observed, confirms that Sections 11 through 13 are occupied by one medium tank regiment each and Section 14 by the 78th Gds Hv Tank SP Regt, [ ] of the 6th Gds 25X1 Tank Div. See HGL [ ] which, according to the present report, was on a road sign in Section 14 belongs to the 52d Gds Tank Regt which is thus confirmed until 25 May 1951. The road sign possibly pointed toward Section 13, since the JS-3 tanks and SP guns observed in Section 14 makes it impossible that a medium tank regiment should be located in Section 14. Since the trucks with AA machine guns in Section 12 belong to the 52d Gds Tank Regt, this regiment is carried there, and the 51st Gds Tank Regt in Section 11.
- (2) The passenger cars belong to the Hq Third Gds Mecz Army, the army's 199th Light 25X1
 Arty Brig and the 6th Gds Tank Div.
